“ Judy, Rita, Brenda, Shirley, Randy and Eugene, I wish to extend my deepest sympathies to each of you at the lost of your sweet mother. She was always so nice to all of us as we grew up in "the neighborhood". Miss Ruthie never failed to ask me about my Mom when we ran into each other. As you know our mother passed away last month, the ache in your heart I truly understand. God Bless and Keep you all as you face the difficult days ahead is my prayer.

“ To the Barber Family (especially Rita and Judy) I am saddened by the passing of your mother, her home was always open to all of us. She always had a smile, a friendly hello and something to eat if we were hungry. I have very fond memories of visiting at your home when we were all coming up. She will be missed. You are all in my prayers.
