“ Carolyn, my heart is sad in the passing of your sister, Sally. I've always enjoyed visiting with her at the Fair and I will miss that time. I remember her smiling face when she worked at the Washington Bank in the 60's-I always made sure I went to her window. My prayers are with you.....Kaye Jean

“ Carolyn, Rodney, Alvin, Ray and family....What sorrow you must feel! Sally was such a delightful person, and had the distinction of being one of my Daddy's favorite people. We all loved Sally. Cherish her memory. I am so sad for all of you, and I pray for the family.
Love to you, Sylvia.

“ To the family Sally loved. Sally was such a precious person...I know your love for her will echo still within your thoughts, your words, and your hearts! For my dear old friend Carolyn, I know you and Sally were as close as close gets. Carolyn, I cry because I can see you cry.. I hurt because I see you hurt... I smile because of the sweet memories you have. Sally is with us in spirit; that I do believe.
Prayers and blessings, Joetta
