

Sandra "Chris" Goss Morgan

August 10, 1961 - February 10, 2025

Sandra "Chris" Goss Morgan, age 63, beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away Monday evening February 10, 2025. She was fiercely proud of her only son and grandson. A lover of food, cooking, and old-time hymns, she was a "cool mom" who cherished spending time with family and friends. Chris had a passion for criminal justice and always sought to help others. She was a dedicated dispatcher for the Washington Parish Sheriff's Office and Franklinton Police Department for many years. She was protective, caring, and will be remembered for her generous spirit.

She is survived by her son, Cory Michael Buffalo and daughter in law Delanea Buffalo, grandson Jacob Buffalo, sisters Shirley Goss Kinlaw, Sherri Goss, and Tracey Barber Ladner, along with several beloved nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents TJ Barber and Louise Jenkins Barber and a brother Douglas Goss.

A graveside funeral service will be held on Thursday February 13th at 11:00 am in the Springhill-Magee Cemetery with Rev. Eric Williams officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations to help support the families and coworkers of fallen police officers in Louisiana. At the Concerns of Police Survivors, Louisiana Chapter by mail (Louisiana C.O.P.S., P.O. Box 41143, Baton Rouge, LA 70835) or online (045134b.netsolhost.com)
