“ To Sean's family:I was the first person at WPSO to meet and work with Sean, as I trained him in dispatch. We became friends instantly, and worked many hours together. I especially loved the war stories that he shared from when he worked with other agencies & his younger days, self-described as "Jesus on Pizza". Please know that I am praying for the family for strength and peace.

“ Mr. Toni, Mrs. Pat, Cindy, Ralph, Toni and Melissa; my deepest condolences. I am very honored to have known Sean. We had the best time in school and I was so happy when he came to AJ, it was good to have a fellow St. Louise person there with me! It was great connecting with him again right after Katrina on MySpace then Facebook.
Please know all of you are in my thoughts and prayers.
