“ I met Sherrle either in 2001 or 2002 , through my brother in law he was going with her at the time we became friends ,she was cleaning houses so I started letting her clean mine and she did for 23 years ,she was the best ! Sherrle was a very caring and loving person and I loved her very much ,she would go beyond helping me and always wanted to satisfy me and others too. Sherrle also took care on my mother in my home til she die and was very good to her and mother loved her also. Well this is so hard on me because I'm older than Sherrle and I always thought I'd go before her but God had other plans for her , may you rest in peace my sweet and beautiful friend you will always be in my heart may we meet again.
