“ It was years ago in early April with still lots of snow on the ground. Shirley Traveled with my family out east .She and I and my two children in the back seat my husband ,Brother and a friend's in the front did a thousand miles in 16hrswe were going East to see my parents and she to see her Mom. We had great laughs told stories it sure was a fun trip. Memories like that never die. So many more of themtime spent with Miss Shirley. Will miss our hour long chats.
