“ I am so blessed to have had my path cross with Suzanne. I haven't had the pleasure to have know her but for three short years. In those three years she taught me so much about endurance, patience, unselfishness, giving, and kindness. Suzanne took her place at the 1st place podium when it came to caring for others. She took inconvenience with a 'grain of salt' as she smiled, laughed, and giggled her way through life's obstacles. I am going to miss her stories about every day life. I am going to miss hearing her tell of all the amazing things she was cooking. She did more in one morning than most people accomplished in a day. I'm going to miss hearing her say, "oh, I don't know, (giggle inserted here) just surprise me". She was an 'in charge' lady. For her to allow me to pick something out for her, always made me feel special, it let me know she trusted my judgment. I am sure I disappointed her a time or two, but she would just sip and say "oh, that's good". Cold mornings always made me think of her, as I anticipated her walking in the door, saying, "oh, it's cold", as she headed towards the fireplace. We each have a purpose to complete in this journey we call life, some of us complete it sooner than others. The rest of us have to continue to reach that goal. I am fortunate to have met Suzanne and my life has been made better for knowing her. I will continue to pray, for the loss is great.
