“ Randy,, So sad to hear of your Mothers passing. It seems I have known her my entire life. From the day you and I started first grade and I rode your Dad's bus to school. You and your family are in my prayers, Mrs. Geneva was a sweet lady and always treated all of us "kids" in the neighborhood good. May God Bless and comfort you all.

“Dear John Reese, Randy and Regina, We are so sorry for your loss. You all and T. Wayne, Cindy and Russell grew up together. I can still see you out playing in the water when the ditches overflowed. We love you all and are sorry we did not get to the service but Wayne has been real sick and we don't go anywhere. It was all over by the time we found out about it. You are all in our prayers. We love you and keep up with you through Regina.
