

Thomas Reed Seal, II

November 10, 1970 - July 29, 2023

Thomas Reed Seal II, a resident of Woodville, Mississippi, passed away Saturday July 29, 2023 at the age of 52. He was a member of Stateline Missionary Baptist Church.

Tom came into this world in Franklinton, Louisiana on November 10, 1970 as the cherished child of Thomas Seal and Judy Dunshee.

Tom was preceded in death by his brother (Matthew Dunshee), father (Thomas R Seal), maternal grandparents (Clarence and Atha Lee Thomas), paternal grandparents (Hermon and Doris Seal), grandfather (George Parkman), uncle (Tony Thomas), as well as many other family members that are now rejoicing with him in heaven.

He leaves behind one child (Madison Hope Seal), his mother (Judy Dunshee), and his only sister (Myranda Stafford). Tom also had many other family members left behind that he cherished. He was a beloved father, son, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend. Tom brought light and laughter to the lives of all who knew him.

Growing up with a mischievous twinkle in his eye, he had a knack for finding joy in the simplest things. From an early age, Tom displayed an infectious humor that could turn any frown upside down. Whether it was a clever one-liner or a well-timed prank, he had a remarkable ability to bring laughter and cheer into any room. Tom was the type of person who could make you forget your troubles and embrace the brighter side of life. Despite his penchant for mischief, Tom was a responsible and loving father in the time he had. He was immensely proud of his daughter, Madison Hope Seal, who he cherished with all his heart. Their bond was unbreakable, and the memories they created together will continue to bring comfort and warmth to those left behind. Tom's passing leaves a void in the hearts of all who knew him, but his lighthearted spirit will forever be remembered. The world was a brighter and happier place with Thomas Seal II in it, and his legacy of laughter will continue to live on.

As we bid farewell to our beloved friend, let us honor his memory by remembering to find joy in the little things, spreading laughter wherever we go, and embracing the mischievous side of life. Tom would want nothing more than to see us all smile, even in times of sorrow.

Rest in peace, Tom. We will forever carry you in our hearts.

Visitation will be at Stateline Missionary Baptist Church (31384 Hwy. 62, Franklinton, LA) on Saturday August 5th from 10:00 am until 2:00 pm. A funeral service will be held in the church at 2:00 pm Saturday with Bro. Trey Jenkins officiating. Burial will follow in the Crain Cemetery.

“ G’mornin to all...this past week has brought a lot of pain and even some times where I literally started laughing out loud and sometimes crying too. For y’all who don’t know, my (still legal) husband has died, this last Saturday. After he had spoken with myself and my fiancé that morning to set up a meeting for the three of us on this past Thursday. I have been separated from Tom Seal Since 2007, yes I will have to say that he was (still) my friend. Although we both have fought our demons and battles with addiction and the pain that comes through the process and fight! But some of us are survivors, others are not so lucky to have made it to sobriety and that makes me so sad. We have been friends since we were young, young and we have one daughter who is about grown now, Hope Arabie and I want to say that I am very happy for the fact that she got to re-meet her daddy before he passed. We have had so many wonderful memories of two stepping out together until he had a hole in his boots! Haha that one made me smile. I’m not sure how to explain what our relationship was like in the end, we’re both clean and serious about keeping our own boundaries and sobriety
We had nothing in the beginning of our marriage but now we’re rich in the love of Our Lord and Savior. I am thankful that I can have peace in my heart, knowing he is with God. I just want to keep my thoughts on our good times in the short time we had together and not dwell on the bad. I will be forever grateful that the Saturday mornings conversation with him, I at least got to say goodbye on the phone. Not knowing it would be the last goodbye from me to him and vice versa. That makes me smile So, Tom I will miss you my friend, I can imagine you up there two stepping on a cloud. I will miss you my husband, my friend. Thanks for the bad and the good. R.I.P. Tom Seal till we meet again.
