“ I knew Torris for a long time. He used to work for Terry at the service station. I sold him his first motorcycle. I bunked with Torris on a boat we worked on, the Flying Diamond. At my wedding he was the first person I saw and the first to congratulate me walking out of the church. We went tubing together on the Bogue Chitto river. I had the honor of meeting his first born son Ben we he was about a week old. I saw him at Jacob's funeral and all he wanted to do was reminisce about the old days.

Rest in Peace my friend,

Jody Zeringue
