“ As I think of Travis, I think of a little brown-haired, quiet comical 5 year old. I was his kindergarten teacher, and it was a year that I will never forget. Travis was loved by his classmates, and he was loved by his teacher. Sending love and prayers to his family.

several years ago they had a pea garden planted with a pea sheller. I bought many peas from him. He was so proud of his garden, very respectable young man.
