

Triston Wayne Redmond

April 4, 2012 - March 27, 2019

TRISTON WAYNE REDMOND, AGE 6

And a resident of Franklinton went to be with the Lord in the early morning hours of March 27, 2019 following a tragic house fire. He was born in Covington on April 4, 2012. Triston was a happy little boy that loved to play outside and enjoyed playing soccer and riding the 4-wheeler. He liked being in the outdoors, shooting his BB gun and hunting and fishing. He always liked playing with his sister and brother, cousins and friends. Triston was polite and acted like a perfect little gentleman, always respectful. He touched the hearts of many, and he will be sadly missed, but we know we will see you again in Heaven.

Dear lil Tristan,

I will always rember how happy your mom and dad were when you were born. You were a beautiful newborn and grew into a handsom lil man. So helpful to your mom with your lil brother n sister. Im sure that you are looking down on them saying dont cry mommy because im gone but smile because i will always be with you in your heart. Fly high big boy, until we all can be together again. Watxh over all of your loved ones left behind for they need you.

Love always lil man, missy sandifer
