“ Uncle Vince was always there for Beau, who knew just how much he was loved. When our sweet Beau died, Vince was devastated and never really recovered. He had a connection he felt, to Beau, and an understanding for his struggles. Now, they both struggle no more. 🙏💙

Thank you Corry... such a beautiful message and so true! I wish we had a glimpse of their eternal joy and that first moment they connected at the gates of heaven!

“ I spoke to some his buddies by phone from the Veterans home today. They are all saying how shocked they are that he was gone so quickly. As they spoke to me, tears flowed... Then they laughed as they share their stories of the way he made them laugh... was still cocky at age 76 & never failed to remind them of how good looking he was...then pulled up sleeves to flex his muscles. They met together for meals and for Bible studies on Wednesdays and Sundays. When I was there to pick him up or take him back after a trip away, they were always joking with him and making comments back-and-forth. They often followed us into the room as we arrived to find out what he had been up to over the past week in TX or CA:) So comforting to me that he had good friends in the Veterans Home. They all looked out for each other and helped each other when they could.

Julaine, just letting you know how sorry we are to have heard about Vince. But we saw how God orchestrated his last days before the He took him home. I'm so glad we had the privilege of meeting him. Your parents would be proud of their children staying in touch with each other as often as y'all did. You're all such a fine example of what family is supposed to be about. Praying peace and joy on all of you. I'm here if you need me Julaine! 🙏🕊️ Love you

Oh Sheryl, thank you so much for these beautiful comments. Yes my heart is warmed when I think of Vince being taken home by angels! Tears still flow, but they are tears of comfort and joy, as I remember him, and have assurance of where he is now... with Jesus & reunited with family and friends, who have gone before him.

Oops an error from my pics - accidentally added a snap shot of my daughter's flight stand-by - LOL! Have to contact the funeral home to remove that crazy snapshot 🙄

I first met Vinnie in Tech School while in the USAF in late 1966. We had classes together, hit the Base movies, and other thing to do while in Tech School. We both got sent back to Lackland AFB as permanent party, We spent the rest of our 4 years serving our Country in the same duty. After the service of course, we hadn't seen each other again, but I will always cherish those youthful memories. May he rest in Peace with the Lord.
