“ Sharon, I'm so sorry I wasn't there for you during the passing of your mother. I'll never forget her telling me to hurry up and get done with her so she could go to choir practice. She is singing in Heaven now. Call me if you feel the need. I'll miss seeing her.

“ Dear Sharon, Laurie, Clay and Family, I'm so sorry about Aunt Wilda and am really sad that I was unable to be there with all of you today. I am happy that she was able to visit us in California last year - she really enjoyed it, especially the visit to Lake Tahoe. I plan to come to Louisiana soon and will come and see you then. Love,
Marilyn
