“ I was one of Mrs. Wilda's hospice volunteer visitors. I enjoyed getting to know her and of her love for her husband, her family and her God. I pray for the gentle repose of her soul and for comfort for her family and friends in their loss.

I, too, was one of the hospice volunteers who had the pleasure and privilege of visiting Ms. Wilda. She was a gracious and courageous person with a beautiful spirit. She had a great love for her husband and family. Our hospice team grieves her loss and sends our prayers and thoughts to her family.
