“ I am so sorry to hear this. Lea was a dear friend of mine. I've known her for years. I met her while she was delivering bread with her daddy to my parents restaurant. I will miss seeing her smiling, friends face! Praying for all of her family.

“ I met Le while she was caring for her mom. We became fast friends sitting on that porch drinking coffee and telling stories. We bonded quickly over our love for Jesus and family. One word to describe Willethia: Loving! She loved big. She loved everyone. She loved her family more than air...

She made me promise not to leave her alone and I watched her go with Jesus.

Until we meet again my friend - Annette Hernandez
