

William "Bill" Dibos, Jr

July 1, 1925 - October 13, 2013

“For in that sleep of death, what dreams may come.” William Shakespeare
“Hamlet”

WILLIAM JOHN “BILL” DIBOS, JR.

Was born in New Orleans on July 1, 1925 where he lived his entire life, and passed away on October 13, 2013 after a long illness, at home with family in Hackley, Louisiana.

He loved to fish and bowl, and once came within one strike of a perfect game. His favorite game though was golf. During his many years as a golfer, he had three Hole-in-ones to his credit! He was always the life of the party, and when he started telling jokes people would be rolling on the floor...REALLY! He taught me how to eat crawfish, which he soon regretted because I could eat them faster than him!

He was fascinated by the Internet and used to like me to search for things when we talked. He was a real history buff and it was so easy finding answer to all his question on google...I will miss our nightly talks and seeing what he would come up with next for me to find!

Bill was the son of the late Lydia Haase Dibos and Captain William John Dibos, Sr. He was the brother of the late Edmond Dibos and Grandfather of the late Michelle Dibos, and Great Grandfather of the late Emily Ferguson. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Gloria Kelt Dibos, three children William J. Dibos, III, Carol Dibos Barber and Kenneth J. Dibos, Sr., six grandchildren Kenneth J. Dibos, Jr. Tiffany Knight, Shane Barber, Melanie Dibos, Amanda Dibos-Heck and Erik Dibos. Seven great grandchildren Chrissy Dibos, Alyna Heck, Bryson Knight, Tyler Jarrell, Gavin Martin, Taylor Fergerson, Jeffrey LeBlanc and many other friend and relatives.

Thanks for everything Dad! I hope you are now finally at peace and pain – free! Until we meet again, your grateful son, Kenneth J. Dibos, Sr.

A private family memorial service will be held at a later date. You will live forever in our memories and hearts.

Obituaries can be viewed online at www.crainfh.com