

Wilmer Crain

July 17, 1945 - March 3, 2012

Wilmer Crain

A professional draftsman and a native of Washington Parish, he died Saturday, March 3, at North Oaks Hospital in Hammond, Louisiana, of complications from bypass heart surgery. He was 66. Visiting at Crain Funeral Home in Franklinton from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Tuesday. Services at 11 a.m. Tuesday, March 6. Born July 17, 1945, he grew up in the Pine community, and was a graduate of Pine High School and Sullivan Vo Tech School (since renamed) in Bogalusa. He was employed at Spangler Engineering of Hammond and previously had been associated with engineering firms in Baton Rouge. He is survived by three children, sons Brian and Scott of Walker and daughter Angela of Brooklyn, N.Y.; one sister, Vivian and her husband Wayne Sullivan of Savannah, Ga.; two brothers, Joe Crain and his wife Kathy of Springfield; and James Wendell and his wife Jean of Ponchatoula; and two grandsons, Corey and Cameron.

Tribute Wall

“ Wilmer Crain

elane martin - March 13, 2012 at 07:59 PM