

Wilvie Cox

May 5, 1939 - February 20, 2022

WILVIE COX, AGE 82

And a lifelong resident of the Stoney Point Community passed away Sunday afternoon February 20, 2022 at his home. He was a pillar of his community and an active member and longtime deacon of Stoney Point Missionary Baptist Church. Wilvie was always committed to providing maintenance for the church and church grounds whenever it was needed. He was a true steward of God. Wilvie was retired after a long career as a cross-country truck driver, most recently driving a tanker truck for many years. He enjoyed gardening and working to keep his yard perfectly clean and maintained. Wilvie also enjoyed visiting with his friends and he loved game night at his sister Terry's home. He most of all loved spending time with his family.
